I am writing with respect to your application for a position with Central Intelligence Agency. Your Personal History Statement has been thoroughly reviewed by those offices within the Agency that might make use of your qualifications. However, I am sorry to report that at the present time there seems to be no suitable opening.

We appreciate your interest in the Agency and your patience during the period in which your application was being reviewed. Should anything arise in the future wherein we might make use of your services you may be sure that we will contact you.

Sincerely yours,

STATINTL
